

I am stunned at the small amount of public input into potential rule changes for media ownership. Your Office should be protecting the public interest, not private interests. Media consolidation has already homogenized our radio content in our community. I can't imagine taking this course further with more consolidation.